York-Poquoson Sheriff's Office Investigates: Probation Violation Arrest on a Sexual Assault Charge

Yorktown, VA – Deputies from the York-Poquoson Sheriff's Office Traveled to Montgomery County, PA yesterday to bring back Ryan Wayne Krieger. Krieger was charged by the York-Poquoson Sheriff's Office in 2001 with 4 counts of aggravated sexual battery involving two children. Krieger was a third grade teacher at Dare Elementary School. In August of 2002 he plead guilty in court to two counts of sexual battery. He was sentenced to 12 months on both counts with all of the jail time being suspended on the conditions that he was to be of good behavior and not violate any laws for a period of 2 years. In April of 2004 Krieger was arrested in Montgomery County, PA on other charges. This violated his probation and a warrant for his arrest was issued.

On March 30, 2005, Mr. Krieger waived extradition to Virginia. He was taken to the Virginia Peninsula Regional Jail today (4/7/05) where he is currently being held. Bond was not available. Krieger is due in court on April 21st for a counsel appointment for the probation violation charge.
